FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Janelle Nalley-Londquist, Des Moines County Treasurer, would like to remind property owners that their second half property tax payments are due by Monday, April 1, 2024.

Payments may be made in person at the Treasurer's Office until 4:30 p.m. or paid online at www.iowatreasurers.org until 11:59 p.m. on April 1, 2024. Payments may also be deposited in the Des Moines County drop box, which is located outside of the courthouse on the south side between the building and parking lot. Drop box payments must be made by 4:30 p.m. on April 1, 2024, to avoid interest.

E-checks and credit cards are accepted online. Credit and debit cards are accepted in the office as well. However, there is a service delivery fee for this convenience whether in the office or online. If remitting by mail, your payment must be postmarked on or before April 1, 2024, to avoid interest, so be sure to check the collection time on the mailbox used to make certain of a timely postmark!

Interest of 1 ½ percent per month will be added to this payment beginning Tuesday, April 2, 2024.

PLEASE NOTE: The front steps to the courthouse will not be accessible for public use for the next two weeks due to the Downtown Tiger Grant project. The back door has been opened for public use during this time. The South handicap sidewalk entrance/exit will still be accessible for a time as well. The south parking lot will be for public use only as there will be one entrance/exit (which is normally the exit out of the parking lot to Main Street).

Thank you,

Janelle Nalley-Londquist
