

September 25th, 2017

The Des Moines County Board of Supervisors met in a special work session at the Court House in Burlington at 10:30 AM on Monday, September 25th, 2017.

A special work session was held between the Board of Supervisors, Christa Poggemiller, Health Department Administrator, Sara Goff and Dr. McCoy, Board of Health members regarding Title X Family Planning Services Clinic and grant application. Types of services provided, and costs to run the clinic were discussed. Several people attended the work session and discussed services provided by Planned Parenthood which were lost after the clinic closed. Other providers, such as Birthright and Informed Choices do not provide cancer screening, birth control and education.

This work session is recorded and kept on file for two years. The minutes are also posted on the county's website www.dmcountry.com
